kly Cancasian.

ETHAN ALLEN, TORS. s at Witson's.

eap at Zeffer's on's and get a efore it is all sold o call at H. J. E. Abren

Cultivator is am

at S cents a yard. illog to receive their paper tributed several bushels of seed corn among the needy farmers. Who else has Lexington musicians will bear favorable comparison with those of any place. They return from the Kansas City Sængerses roken by a falling window sash. Four delegates to the lower house the Con. Con., at Jefferson City, left en at work on the Branch as soon as word came of the damage by the storm. He does not propose to let any body's locomotives run ahead of his.

been undergoing repairs at Jordan's foundry, was brought out last Saturday evening for the purpose of testing it. The Last week our County Court concludes to make an appropriation to the grass-hopper sufferers, if they had the legal power to do so. At a meeting of the har was decided that the court had no auposing of it at at prices to su therity to make such appropriation, and of course the matter was dropped. We aps by other courts.

they hired a skiff and ca er hack load, who were similarly caught, took in the situation at once, and returned Tyler, F. C. Smith. o'clock at night.

At a meeting called for school district, vas in town last Thursday. He all applications for relief in that district black folks. A short time after she disovered that a family of colored people were living in the house, and going to the agent remonstrated with him. His reply was: "Madam, you said you did not want any black folks in your house. The man that lives there now is not black the lady's reply, but presume it was

Mr. R. G. Jordan, a gentlem merchants, and same in width, and bung in the air like s mountain of snow, with a back ground of ple would not let him solid rose tint, which made it stand out those chickens off the by itself. "It was as white as no fuller on earth could white it" in the expressive

truit trees which had been completely

Since the installation of a beaut young lady in the money department of our post-office, we hear that the numb money orders has greatly increased low to count while making a little settle

The girls all look positively distracting before a storm, and one of those broad-ten. The illustrations are the best we bringed, rakish hate, with the side ever saw in Scribner. It you desire a locks, the pulse of the average male Lexingtonian goes up to 200 degrees and his at the Rudder Grange is full of

LOCAL SHORT STOPS.

Read the aunouncement of Central Feale College, which appears this week. Rev. R. P. Kerr will preach at Prairie

The Register office has been re the room over Gill's saloon, near the post office.

Three new houses will be built on the W. V. Cromwell, of Ft. Worth. as, an old resident of this city, is here upon a visit. Mr. Geo. Hutchinson will have charge f the boarding department of the E. A. Seminary next year. Miss Lucy Gordon gave a very onlight croquet party at her house on Thursday evening. Mrs. Joseph Tidball, of Fort Worth Texas, is visiting friends and relative in and around Lexington.

pant, and the stillness in that porton of the city is distressing. Last Sunday $1 75 per day was paid men to work on the Branch railroad, repairing the damage done by the storm Insurance agents have all been busy this week adjusting the losses by the late fire. The damages allowed to the City Hotel were $325.

The Rev. J. W. Lewis, of St. Louis by fire, is in the city making preparati We are pleased to announce that Prof.

livan has, after due deliberation.

Mr. Means, of Freedom township, had one of his horses drowned last week while attempting to cross a swollen stream; near the residence of Mr. C. Biedsoe.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation from the Society of Tammany, of New York, to be present at the 99th Anniversary of American independence.

The rubbish upon the site of the old Market House, and the grading of the street in that neighborhood is now under tway, preparatory to receiving its coating of broken rock.

Now that our schools have closed, and the protessors and papils are at leisure, will asome one tell us why the closing exercises of a school are called the "counmencement exercises."

In answer to youte to shall the lift inst., I have to an away of the last day of June, 1875, the act of January in and is in the last day of June, 1875, the act of January in and is to be treated the last day of June, 1875, the act of January in and is the last day of July, you are to be governed entirely by the act of March 24, 1874, (see page 72, season acts 1873), Under the act you are to collect and account for as other taxes, on additional tax of five at the month of January, and ten per cent for February, and ollected in the month of February and collected thereafter. This would give 12 per cent, the protessors and papils are at leisure, will some one tell us why the closing exercises of a school are called the "counmencement exercises."

nencement exercises.

Our Junior Band is fast gaining a repyear, and we thought their music last Monday night was very tine. The Agricultural department at Wash-city, for free distribution among grass-hopper sufferers, three large sacks filter Nearly every window pane in Concor dia was broken by the terrible ball storn at that place on Friday last. The bail ever seen, and it is hard to believe the stories told of their magnitude. We thought they had three or for devil miss-spelting , but the Sedulis Dem a d'are board-arc. Kill those proof read-The annual election for officers of Lex-

Senior Warden, H. C. Boteler; Junior Warden, Robert Hain; Treasurer, C. O. Grimes; Secretary. Thomas Standish; and having ice water poured on it, it as-Our court bouse yard is one of the few loafers love to congregate there. We think our officers should take pains to No. 4, township 50, range 56, to appoint think our officers should take pains to a committee to hunt up the needy in said keep this yard in a decent condition. Drive out the stock, and wake up the sleepers, and make them pay for their

If the reporter of the Kansas City Jour-

on a lady of this city, which resulted i ispose tumor from the side and arm pit s progressing very favorably.

The concert which was given by Prof ast Thursday evening, for the benefit ers was very poorl the grassiopper state of the expenses are paid, only a tribing sum will be realized for benevolent use. The ball, printing and advertising were given free. The at-tendance did not exceed thirty or forty.

·· Wide Awake ' is the name of a new onthly magazine for boys and girls, the per of which has just reach s. Young folks will certainly be pleased lesigned especially for them, and is prostrated. The list of correspond lents is a good one. Elia Farman is editor. $2 per year, D. Lathrop & Co.

2 40 Cornhill, Boston. About a quarter of a century ago masons commenced holding their meet-logs in the Arcans Hall building, Of in Fireman's Fund lus Co., of California. late they are becoming dissatisefid with sters, and are trying to get i scupled by Royle & New and M. E. Keler are to be raised one story, and the upper part made into one room for their use. They expect to get into their new room by the 1st of October.

A cicrical friend, who spent last Sah bath in the vicinity of Mt. Hope, inform us that there is an abundance of legged" chickens in that vicinity, but the people are afraid to eat them because the chickens have eates so many hoppers, such by One man did eat a couple, but he lim been hopping mad ever since, and ha been trying to dy to Nebraska. The pec ld not let him go, because he got to ourselves, as the agent has been in this yard as they slew the grass and chewed throw a paper weight at them, or stab one of the largest with our scissors, as be attempted to carry the exchanges out on the back shed, to learn from them where the best feeding grounds were. The weather was sultry, but we had to close funds taken up on the day appointed for fasting and prayer, by Gov. Hardin, be placed at once in the hands of the Deacolumns of your paper that we are in re-ceipt of 3,000 packages of a variety of excellent seed, direct from the establishment of John Kern, St. Louis, Mo which we are authorized to distribut None but those actually in need will be osite Chansior's stable, Laurel street

ON SUSPICION

REGISTER PUBLISHING COMPANY. Job lot of stripe Grenadines at 5 cen per yard worth 16 and 25. For COLLECTOR'S NOTICE. COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, June 23, '75, of the 16th inst., I have to say that after

The following notice of our well-known and accomplished vocalist, we copy from the Kansas City Times' account of the sort and some the Kansas City Times' account of the sort and sold winds, was compelled to associate the sort and response of the most difficult soogs to execute, and requires a thoroughly cultivated voice to perform it successfully. Miss Boyakin has a very sweet voice, which has been cultivated to a high degree. She received a hearty encore for her effort in singing "Casta Diva," and in response sang "Good Night, My Child," by Abs. This is the same piece sung so successfully by Theo. Wachtel two years ago with Pareps Rose. Prof. Chas. Gimble naving been detained by an accident on the North Missouri, his place was filled with an improvised performance by Profs. Kreas and Staub.

Miss Boyakin sang "Judith" in very state of the same proposed to cross in a skiff, to this city, having in the boat a truck filled with raise the same piece of work, which was originated by their master, the devil, we call it is joke. The New York Sun of the 17th inst., says editorially:

"Suppose that some time ago when sense on a widower, be became engaged to a young lady, remarkable for ber beauty, talest and accomplishments, and being engaged wind and rain did considerable damage, and the trains were unable to rain until Monday morning.

At Houstonia, the people recollecting that the trains were unable to rain until Monday morning.

At Houstonia, the people recollecting that the trains were unable to rain until Monday morning.

At Houstonia, the people recollecting that the trains appropriate name to give the B.T. scan. mag., and from the fact that all bull must be in a constant titter by this time at this constant titter by this time at this piece of work, which was originated by the most constant titter by this time at this piece of work, which was originated by the most owner, which was originated by the fact that all bull must be in a constant titter by this time at this piece of work, which was originated by the m dition to the ten per cent penalty for the month of June, two per cent in addition to the ten would be added for July. making 12 per cent for July, 14 for August and so on. But the auditor has decided differently, and I have no doubt piece which is spoken of in such compli-piece which is spoken of in such compli-mentary terms, three notes lower than mentary terms, three notes lower than she had intended, from the fact that an she had intended, from the fact that an water presented the appearance of a bridge, caught a hopper, and while examining it, hunting for maggets, pulled its head off, when a stender white worm he lusect, and was drawn out. At first monly lively. A hopper was captured Sunday to finish it up, and pronounce short distance from Auliville, the earth sentence upon the convicts whom the which supported the track was washed juries had found guilty. It seems to be the general opinion among lawyers and the people, that Judge Hill is eminently that town were blown down. In the im- of their guilty and uncontrollable fixed for his responsible position. Russell's place a tew days ago, which had a tape worm eight inches long. Don't fail to go to McCaustand & Bed-and Callahan. The insanity dodge, it is commonly called, was made the be ourt of Ray county, at Richmond. Many some years ago, in an asylum tempor for the sum of $325. There are other cases against the city, and as this is a test seemed to have equal faith in the justice of their side. After a fair and lengthy rial the jury brought in a verdict guilty. On Saturday, just before the ch ourt, the Judge sentenced Hawk to three years in the penitentiary. He received the sentence with some show of indignangton Jackson, but the case was laid over ceny, was sentenced to the penitentiary, for three years each, on two charges.

EXCURSION .

exington ball players, who were chalenged by the club of Schalls, will play a astch game. Rates from Lexington Brownsville and return, round trip tick-et, $1 50; Pageville, $1 50; Higginsville, $1 25; Auliville, $1 00; Concordia, 65cts. Copies of the delinquent tax list car

THE HOWLING BLASTS.

about thirty-live years, named John Atmospheric Perturbations in La-an account of the storm which raged with such unprecedented fury in St. Louis and At about seven o'clock in the evening o the same day, we had one here, which at that price, provided the sense and a telegram to some one at his former home to see if he was all right. Meyer and that he had lived for two years and that he had lived for two years solid sheets, and from personal observaer said that he had been said that he had be

Kansas, but knew of no one to whom be could send the telegram, as all his neighbors had moved away on account of the rawages of the grasshoppers. The buyer offered to pay for the telegram. Meyer became uneasy, and called for his horse, Under these circumstances the officer left it his duty to arrest the man. A representative of the Caucasian called to see the prisoner at the calaboose. He is a respectable looking and intelligent man; says he has been a gardener and farmer in Wyandotte county, Kansas; that his wife is in lows; that he is on his way there; that the horse is honestly his, and that he is innocent. In our newspaper experience we have seen thousands of criminals and know that appearances are deceptive. The man tells a straight story looks like a simple, honest man, and that

Miss Boyakin sang "Judith" in very good taste, and showed excellent execution.

Miss Boyakin was compelled to sing the piece which is spoken of in such compil-town a house was blown over but no one the worm appeared flat, and with legs so linely in tune.

THE CLOSE OF THE CRIMINAL can under a thirty foot embankment, was and having ice water poured on it, it assumed the size and shape of a coarse cotton thread. With a small, living cable of this character in his stomach, we presume the criminal court up to Friday under the track for a distance of thistre. In our last issue we gave the porcesslogs of the Criminal Court up to Friday under the track for a distance of thirtyevening. On Saturday the business was unfinished, and Judge Hill remained over Sunday to finish it up, and pronounce short distance from Auliville, the earth

tted for his responsible position.

The greater portion of Friday and Satsevere damage resulted, although severWe have en so disluterestedly eager to write, has o'clock officer Harney was pacing down tracted by the rays of a light which sh lar door of Sommerville's grocery.

down into the cellar, he asked who wa there, when the "glim was doused." This action satisfied him that there was ington Jackson, but the case was laid over the burgiar or an incendiary in the cellar, till next term, and he released on $100 Harney called Ashford. They found the Richard Hainline, charged with assault cellar door unlocked, procured a light, and went into the cellar and began searching for the midnight provier. After as exploration among the masses of boxes and barrels, they found a robust negro

The officers dragged him out of th ellar to the side walk, and tound that was James Clark. They seked blin wha was doing in the cellar, and he said be was "jes down dah to git a few 'tatar fo' hisself." James than locked the tents, that the whole block, from Pinete. Laurel streets, would have been consum-ed. Here is proof of the propriety of having night police.

THE FLOATER.

Last Tuesday afternoon while Emme Sommers, Chas. Appley and Horace Michener were boating on the river their a vill a nel about a design der filt to

IMPORTANT DECISION

DRY GOODS PROBLEM

IN PAVOR OF PRESENT BARD TIMES

H. J. E. AHRENS.

STAPLE AND FANCY

DRY-GOODS.

LEXINCTON:

That from and after Monday, the 10th day of May, I will se Our Goods

Spring Stock,

Davis creek, which passes near Brownsfor this occasion.

The bartone solo, "As I View these Secues of Charming," sung by A. W.
Smith of Lexington, received a hearty and well merited encore.
The last piece—male chorus from the least piece—male chorus from as on an island, but nothing is known of anybody being missing or burt.

About three-quarters of a mile west of
all continues and adulterous
pastor or his beguiled and unfortunate paramour."
In addition to the above, which is
about three-quarters of a mile west of
all continues and adulterous
pastor or his beguiled and unfortunate paramour.
In addition to the above, which is
about three-quarters of a mile west of all while, was never known to be so high for wears. In some places it formed lakes interest man for the sake of the general was adulterous
pastor or his beguiled and unfortunate paramour."
In addition to the above, which is only a cautious way of telling a not find them cheap enough, we do not ask you to buy of us.
Alliville the track was washed, out for about three-quarters of a mile west of all combination before in large opera, but never have we heard this kind of musical combination before in large opera, but never have we heard this kind of musical combination before in large opera, but never have we heard the received as a man under study of the story which is now ringing in the well well as the position to the above, which is about three-quarters of a mile west of a cautious way of telling a mine our goods, and if you do not find them cheap enough, we have the tale of Looder and Price.
The irror the above, we have the bad loved not to expense in

H. J. E. ARREYS.

TO BUY

Ardinger's.

NEW

Marked Down!

VALUABLE RECEIPTS.

FOR HARD TIMES

H. T. WILSON

CHEAP DRY GOODS

Is Large, Our Prices

Reasonable.

dent that we have got as well selected a Stock of Dry Goods, king a specialty

Adventures of Asron Burr, never am now in receipt of a large and gene

Thirty Days for Cash!

ALL GOODS

20 to 25p. c.

for catalogues. With thanks for past favors, We remain

Yours, Respectfully

& Bedford have a job lot of y 12 yards of calleo at Me

ERY LOWEST CASh prices, at Patterns at Wilson's. The ttern in the market. Sen H. T. Wilson, agent. ats at & cents a yard, worth pishing the address of irth can now cut and fit for them getting one of Butterick's Pat

rd have kept in stock eve

given general satisfaction

Oil Cloths and Mattings a to make room for a ne all and examine their goods, envinced of the truthfulness of tion, that they are selling at ru-

rents for the Cronenbe

the coolest, sweetest and most spark, water this side of the river Jordan. at home—The baby.

ro, Brazil, appeared upon the storm on Sunday evening neces the closing of some of the churches, ding the g. h. ing the week several barrels of tree erington Lodge No. 149, A.

eorge T. Hardcastie, a formerly well a representative of a large New York esutitui jewel. He has it set in his jaw. it is a fine, healthy carbuncie, rosy red. Cooler than the frowns of a mother

The man and brother seems waste in idle labor; consequently be lids of corner dry goods boxes.

known to many of our merchants, and throughout this part of the state, was in the city last week, representing the house of R. Billingsly & Co., St. Louis. Judge Hill took a little jaunt into th country last Sunday to see a friend, and brought back with him the limbs of some ment in that department. He also offers one. Charence Steadman has a poem on to pay the postal fees for anybody who will commission him to buy their money

Mr. John E. Burden is now in Danville

The frog scare has about subsided. The river rose several feet last light, caused by the big rains. John M. Chambers, a mountain been since last spring. We see in the Richmond Conserva

Wonder if the editor wrote it? Last week, in the burry of putting Droves of cattle are constantly passing through our city. They have averaged two droves a day during the past week. It is stated that the measles and scarlet tever are both in town. Mr. Wm. Allen

Monday evening. Our sheriff west with Nick Haerle, of this city, proposes, at an early day, to take up his residence among the broad-brimmed brethren and love-eved sisters of Penn's City - the trial was not satisfactory, and the engine was taken back to its quarters at the cal-

Last Friday night, during the storm, agent, who has the distribution of sup-Rufus Young acted as secretary. The nai, who spent last Sunday in this city, following named persons were appointed and then went out of reach, and abused a committee for the purpose: Lewis P.

Mr. Joseph Willets and Mr. Willets, of New York, the former the sident of the Kansas City, Wyandotte and Northwestern narrow gauge railroad spent Saturday and Sunday in this city These gentlemen are wealthy capitalists and lately visited Kanssa City to see i arrangements could be made to complete the road to the coal fields and rich agri mitural districts of Latayette. We ha ness me i as to the prospects of the al for saying "black folks," when speak-ing of the colored population. She had a house to rent, and her agent let it to a family of colored people, and when she heard of it she had them put out, and after thoroughly cleaning the house she complimentary to the agent. On Sunday evening about sunset the attention of a large crowd at the City Hotel was attracted by the appearance in the heavens of a cloud of rare and unusu beauty. We have seen clouds on the but never saw one to compare in beauty with this. It was visible for only about two minutes in its perfect form. It was what meteorologisis call a cumulus cloud. It appeared a hundred feet high, and the ncy and beauty of outline surpassed the We have always considered Scribner Monthly one of the best of the great American periodicals of elegant literature. The July number, which lies apo ur table, is a full and unusually brilliant illustrated, and gives us a real idea of the grace of Diana, trips up Main arrest, tertaining of our native authors, is one with her dress clawed back like a jub sail of the most interesting he has ever writ-

EDITOR CAUCASIAN : Will you pleas

LATER—Since the above was in type, we have learned the sequel to this story. we have learned the sequel to this story. Policeman Ashford telegraphed to the district from which Meyer says he came. E. C. Eames, president of the Kanasa City & Wyandotte Narrow Gange railroad sent a telegram in answer saying: "hold the thief; I will be down on the 28th." He came: identified the horse and the man. Meyer confersed that he stole the animal, and that ends it. Beyer has been working for Mr. Eames for some time.

urday were consumed in the trial of all of our streets which have been newly repaired, were pretty bally washed. nee, as Hawk was charges of petti larceny, to pay a tine of up through the iron grating near the celwith intent to kill, filed his recognizance satisfaction. Insured in the Fireman's Fund Insurance Co., of California, E. Willsor & Son, Agents. The loss of week to thirteen years, on several charges of horse stealing, received an

Rates for children under the control of the course of the any time after 6 o'clock p. m. The train ry, and after an examination, a verdicted

The Old Town Fire Company will hol

Mrs. Jameson desires us to thank her their meeting at the engine house, on next Monday evening. A full attendance is desired, as important matters will be Mr. Farrar has begun the digging of cellar on Franklin street, next to the building lately erected by Mr. Toeppe, and is making other preparations for the Mr. Lewis has let out the contract the rebuilding of his property on the cor-per of Main and Laurel streets. Then the most improved style, with 15 foot ceilings, iron fronts, thirty-three feet the most improved style, with 15 foot ceilings, iron fronts, thirty-three feet from pavement to cornice, the roof, and all the latest improvements. The buildings are to be completed by September 1st, and will be as handsomely and elegantly finished as any in town. The whole job is to be done by Lexington machanics.

SEED CORN. The Lexington Savings Bank will re-sive, the first of next week, 3 car-loads of early white and yellow seed corn, to be trains on the Branch have considerable truntrundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice.

and he shot out lightnings.

then the channels of water were seen and the foundations of the world were discovered at the flash of the breath of Thy nostrile.

At about 7 o'clock the ferry boat started to cross the river, while the wilod was blowing a furious gale. The boat had on hoard a number of passengers who were on their way to the Kansas City Sænger-

THE DEVIL'S OWN JOKE.

abulary for an appropriate name to

At the first blush, we thought it was York Herald. They say, under were at work in Tilton's house, and upon going suddenly and unex-Assion.

We believe in total and universal Your Pocket Dress Goods repaired, were pretty badly washed. depravity now. This is the last then, who are we going to believe in? Shall these stories make us believe that every woman is unchaste, and that every man is a libertine, and > the frailest of all human frailty? io, that Mrs, Tilton's mad love fo York." Eugene Sue, Robelais, Dumas, the author of The Life and penned such a lascryious tale of wick ed passion as this. CENTRAL FEMALE COLLEGE

LEXINGTON, MISSOURI,

Seventh Annual Session.

Real Estate. DEFY COMPETITION

Are New,

Our Stock

We feel confi-ITISCASH and Notions, ma-

As can be found in the City "And GOODS, none can undersell us by

FAIR dealing."

We are cnostantly receiving NEW GOODS SPRING GOODS, Thereby keeping our stock Fresh and attractive.

> Prices. Agent for the celebrated C. Butterick & Co.'s Patterns. Send

Everything

at Bed Rork

own in expectation of errival of seed corn, but they were Only seventy-five cents a quart, and as pure as the snow on the mountain's crest, is the sparkling soda a tripped of their bark by the paws of the

Mr. J. H. Ardinger has returned fro oat, passed down last Monday. Mr. Eugene Ewing is having his ey reated in Louisville, Kentucky Dave Smith and Joe Hamlet ret paper to press, we accidentally left out column of grasshooper meeting news.

We are pained to learn that Mrs. J. C. Young met with a painful accident last Saturday. She had her arm caught and the ferry. They waited until 9 o'clock, and then went to a house and went to bed. The next morning they were up bed. The next morning they were up cers were chosen: W. M., A. A. Leaueur; tre side of the river, waiting for

B. D. Weedin. After the meeting ad-journed, the committee met together and lected B. D. Weedin chairman, to whom > ie pleasure of meeting them, and foun them agreeable gentlemen as well a language of Scripture. Its dazzling girls all look positively distracting social condition of things there. The down our backs, sitting perched on the new summer rigs. When a rosy story of "Seven Oaks," by Dr. J. G. end of the copy hooks, eating up the old tertaining of our native authors, is one take down the Bible and read a chapter thoroughly entertaining and instructive joy reigns supreme in the sanctum, for the volume, get Scribner for July. The Girl only one visible is the one in the corner.

Mr. Wm. McKay, who has been spend ing a few weeks in Arkansas, has again

During the storm last Friday night the lightning struck the house occupied by Bob Sandiford, and knocked Bob and his family around promiseuously. Light

At the prayer meeting of the Baptis church, on Wednesday evening. Dr.

Chapman presented a resolution that the Causland & Bedford's.

ing the meaning of the law in relation to the amount of pennity to be collected for McCausland & Bedford are selling their entire stock of stripe Grenadines at 5 ers

THE HOPPPER'S FRIEND.

work last Wednesday, near McGirk' twelve luches in length, resembling the ford's and get 20 yards of stripe Gr railroad, came up for trial in the Three days were occupied by the case The jury returned a verdict for Swinso ase, it will probably go to the suprem court. Col. J. W. Black and Walker &

Field represented the plaintiff; Garner &

on and county attorney Graves conduct-

PROMPT SETTLEMENT AND

PAYMENT OF LOSSES BY

St. Louis, and the Fire Association

Bayliss & Johnson, of the City Hotel, has been satisfactorily adjusted. Insured also

E. Winsor & Son, Agents. The loss

P. C. Patterson is also in process of ad-days. We congratulate these citizens of Much, however, is due to the Agent

ously and continually to have these losse fairly and promptly adjusted and paid

The following editorial from the Sprin

These agents

sned by them.

sor & Son, who have worked zea seldom have any trouble i

SWINSON VS. THE CITY.

the needy.

Last Thursday morning a German, aged deceptive. The man tells a straight story, looks like a simple, honest man, and that is something in his favor. The officer was, however, fully justified by the circuit gave his volce.

she had intended, from the unforseen accident prevented her from get-unforseen accident prevented her from get-ting the music which had been transposed. Davis creek, which passes near Browns-Davis creek, which passes near Browns-

The United States Insurance Company, bilsdelphia, the companies in which the three store houses of Rev. Jos. W. Lews were insured, through E. Winsor & Son, Agents, have already adjusted and PAID the claim for the loss of these buildings. Such promptness deserves men-tion. The loss also of the Register print

Mr. W. W. Rhodes has issued the folsing rates of fare for the excursion to additional sentence of two years, on one of the charges, to which he plead guilty. Thus ended the dirst term. Unless we have another fire or a big storm all will be quiet on the Big Muddy for some time.

On Monday evening those persons who were condemned to the penitentiary were ordered by Sheriff Mountpy to make preparations for their new home and new suits. They did not seem to realize that they were "gone up," until this moment. A large number of persons, chiefly colored, gathered to wish them a long visit and a safe stay.

EXCHARGEM

Henry Ward Beecher. Suppose that Bowen went to Beecher with this revelation, and suppose that then Beecher confessed his crime, likewise went down upon his knees before Bowen and deploring his sin, declared that he had earnestly and truly researched thereof and adjusted truly repented thereof, and adjured the injured man for the sake of the woman be had loved not to expose either the licentious and adulterous THE LADIES AND THE TRADE IN that this demi-god whom five thousand people love and revere more than they do Jesus of Nazareth, is Shall we believe, as many already Seecher has made her a liar, and that this love for her seducer justi fies her in defending him. If these stories are proven, then Beecher cas honestly, (and it is the only thing he can then do honestly), lay claim to be "the wickedest man in New

BECINS SEPT. 1st, 1875